

CURRICULUM VITAE

Full Name: Belgacem Al-Arabi Megrini.

Nationality: Moroccan

Marital Status: Married, and father of three children.

Mobile Phone: +212607861615

WhatsApp: +212669619615

Email: belmegrini@hotmail.com

Professor and researcher in Arabic and Semitic linguistics, and sociolinguistics.

Particular Specialization: Phonetics and Lexicography.

PhD in Arabic Linguistics - Faculty of Arts, Rabat, 2007.

Master D. in Arabic Linguistics - Faculty of Arts, Rabat, 1999.

Worked as a professor of Arabic linguistics and Hebrew language at the Faculty of Arts, Beni Mellal, Morocco during the periods: (1989-1992) and (2009-2011).

Also worked as a professor of Arabic language attached to the Ministry of Education in Bahrain (1992-1997).

And as a professor of Arabic language sciences at the Multidisciplinary College in Khouribga, Morocco (2010-2011).

Taught Arabic language at the High School of Governance and Economics affiliated with Mohammed VI University of Multidisciplinary Studies - Rabat (2014-2015).

Member of the National Council of the Moroccan Association for the Protection of the Arabic Language and Coordinator of the Culture and Publications Committee at the National Office. Linguistic editor expert in the Doha Historical Dictionary of the Arabic Language (since 2017).

Some of his publications include:

"How did the Jews enrich their language" (Kenitra- Morocco, 2008).

"Lexicon of phonetic terminology among Tajweed scholars" (Beirut, 2013).

"Grammar of the Arabic Language" (three parts - in French) (Paris, 2014).

"Summary of Tajweed rules" (in French) (Beirut, 2016).

"Dictionary of Biological Terms" (Arabic-Hebrew-French-English) (manuscript).

"Dictionary of Music Terms" (Arabic-Hebrew-French-English) (manuscript).

Authored and translated about twenty articles published inside and outside Morocco.

Received certificates of appreciation from several national and Arab institutions (Morocco, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia).